The Finest and Easiest Side Spring Bugie made is the Columbus

It has more desirable features than any other side spring gear. It is so constructed that the center or brace springs serve a double purpose, i. e., both a brace and an equalizer, consequently you get less side motion than on any other side spring gear. Put your whole left on one step of the COLUMBUS and watch the result, then go through the same operation on any other side spring gear vehicle and you will find the COLUMBUS goes down level, while the others will cant to one side. There has been over 40,000 vehicles with this gear sold, and so far as we know there has never been a spring broken, and its riding qualities are unsurpassed.

HAD TO PAY ALIMONY

Chinese Sent to Jail Until He Did.

SUPREME COURT DOES QUICK WORK

Hands Down Two Opinions in Cases Submitted Last Week.

Chong Quong learned that an order of court must be obeyed, after he had been locked up at the Police Station for a few hours Saturday afternoon, upon a charge of contempt brought before Judge Gear. The Chinese is the same who was sued by San Moe a few months ago for divorce, and who disclaimed the ownership of half a dozen or more children whom his wife said he had refused to support. Quong denied that he had any property whatsoever at the trial, and when questioned by Attorney Brooks stated that he earned but ten dollars a month, or thereabouts.

It was shown however that he had an interest in a store, which brought him in considerably more money than that, and Judge Gear allowed his long suffering and patient wife, alimony of fifteen dollars a month. The money was to be paid on the 25th of each month, beginning in August; but the defendant had failed to comply with the order of the court, and Saturday morning at the request of Attorney Brooks Judge Gear issued a bench warrant ordering the Chinese to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. The prisoner was arrested and brought into court, but failed to give a satisfactory explanation for disobedience of the court's order, and showing no inclination to comply with the mandate was adjudged guilty of contempt by Judge Gear and ordered detained at the Police Station until he had complied with the order of the court.

Finally seeing that he had no other way to secure his freedom Chong Quong obtained the aid of his friends and raised the money needed to pay alimony to his divorced wife, and was then released after a brief confinement.

GEAR TRIES TWO CASES.

Judge Gear heard two appeal cases Saturday from the District Court. In the case of F. D. Carvalho vs. William Savidge et al., he rendered judgment for defendant.

In the case of W. H. Smith & Co. he found for plaintiff in the sum of $20 and costs.

HAGEY CURE CASE.

In the case of Harrison vs. Magoon, the attorneys presented arguments Saturday for and against the opening of the verdict, on the ground that Victor Fernandez was disqualified because he had taken the Hagey gold cure. The four attorneys for defendants were all put on the stand to testify that they had been unaware of the juror's disqualification until after the case had been submitted. Attorney Robertson introduced the court record showing that the only examination of Fernandez was by himself, and contending that consequently the defendants waived any objection they might otherwise have raised. The arguments occupied the greater part of the day, and Judge Gear reserved his decision until this morning.

A PERJURY CHARGE.

The Grand Jury, it is reported, has been investigating the charge made by Attorney Bittling in the case of Cook vs. Hobron, of perjury on the part of one of the witnesses. A motion for a new trial based on that ground has been made.

SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court handed down two opinions Saturday, as well as hearing arguments in the appeal of the Kamalo Sugar Company.

The first opinion was in the matter of the Alina Estate, wherein Magoon appealed from an order made by Judge Humphreys allowing Wade Thayer an attorney's fee of $40, which was to be paid by Magoon from his commissions as administrator. The court in overruling Humphreys says:

"Where the amount of commissions due an administrator have been definitely settled by decision of this court and the cause is remanded to the circuit judge for such further proceedings as may be necessary in conformity with the foregoing views, it is error for the circuit judge to allow an attorney's fee to the attorney of the legatee and make the same a charge against the administrator's commissions."

The opinion was written by Judge

Galbraith, Perry and Little sitting with him on the case.

Judge Humphreys was sustained in the case of Esther N. Pilipo et al. vs. Nettie L. Scott and the Kona Sugar Company, the opinion being written by Perry. The court dismissed the petition, holding that plaintiffs had a plain remedy at law. The syllabus says:

"When a lessee fails to pay the rent reserved in a lease, the lessor has a plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law, to recover either the amount of such rent or summary possession of the land. In such case, equity has no jurisdiction to declare the forfeiture of the lease. So, also, the aid of equity to declare such forfeiture cannot properly be invoked on the ground that the lessee pays each installment of rent only after legal proceedings to recover summary possession of the land have been instituted."

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

The Schief property was resold Saturday at auction to Henry Smith, one of the interested parties, for $3,500. It had been sold twice before, but owing to a misunderstanding the parties refused to accept the property at the price they had offered.

A demurrer has been filed by defendant in the case of the Kapioani Estate vs. Charles Desky suit to foreclose mortgage on the Progress block.

A petition has been filed requesting the appointment of A. S. Maitani as administrator of the estate of Keolohapuaole Makahi.

George W. Ashley has been appointed guardian of the Pestana minors. The estate consists of real property in this city.

The will of Francisco Gomes Capucha has been admitted to probate. His widow is named as sole heir and executrix.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY

Two Japanese Badly Injured. The Makawao Debating Society.

MAUI, Oct. 12.—On the 10th the hill just above the Kulanui plantation houses, in Makawao, was the scene of a runaway accident, the results of which, though not fatal, still were quite serious in their nature. The wagon, belonging to Maunaloa Seminary, drawn by two spirited horses in charge of two Japanese, was returning to Paia from the old seminary premises in upper Makawao with a load of firewood. At the Kulanui hill a telephone linesman on horseback galloped swiftly by, calling something to the Japs as he passed. Either the rushing of the horse or the yelling of the man frightened the animals, and after rearing and plunging furiously, they broke the wagon pole and ran down the slope.

The wagon was soon completely wrecked by striking against the side of the hill, and the two Japanese were thrown out. One of them was so badly bruised about the head that the doctor at Paia hospital feared concussion of the brain for a time, and the other man quite seriously injured his foot.

The horses set free by the breaking of the tugs ran for a quarter of a mile until stopped by the telephone operator who unintentionally started the animals upon their mad career.

Last evening, the 11th, the regular meeting of the Makawao Debating Society took place in the parlors of the Paia Foreign Church. The subject discussed was, "Resolved, that Chinese laborers should be admitted into the United States."

Messrs. D. C. Lindsay and C. E. Copeland, as leaders of the affirmative, opposed Messrs. W. C. Crook and F. A. Alexander, the leaders of the negative. The former won the approval of the audience present.

At the next meeting the debaters will discuss the question whether or no the dissemination of anarchistic sentiments, either printed or spoken, should be permitted by law.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: D. C. Lindsay, president; C. E. Copeland, vice president, and R. F. Engle, secretary.
